1 NAME

The name of the incorporated association is the KIMBERLEY KARAVAN OWNERS GROUP Inc. ("the Group").

2 INTERPRETATION

1. A word or expression that is not defined in these rules, but is defined in the Act has, if the context permits, the meaning given by the Act.
2. In these rules, unless the contrary intention appears:

Act means the Associations Incorporation Act 2009 No. 7.

Annual General Meeting means a general meeting of members as required by law and this Constitution.

Associate Member means a person who has been admitted to the group with limited rights as defined in Clause 5.

Code of Conduct means the code of behaviour that is referred to on the Group's website.

Constitution means the constitution of the Group.

Management Committee means the committee of management of the Group.

Financial Year means a year commencing on 01 March one year and ending on the last day of February the following year.

General Meeting means a meeting of members convened by this Constitution.

Law means any requirement of the Act and any other present or future law of the Commonwealth of Australia or any State or Territory with which the Group must comply.

Member means a person who is an Ordinary Member of the Group (see Clause 5).

Register of Members means the register of the Group's members that is required to be maintained according to the Act.

Qualifying Unit means a KARAVAN or KRUISER manufactured by KIMBERLEY KAMPERS Pty Ltd (KIMBERLEY KAMPERS).

Trip Leader means a Member who organises, and facilitates a gathering of members.

Regulations means the Associations Incorporation Regulation 2010.

Webmaster means the Forum Administrator(s) as appointed from time to time by the Management Committee

3 OBJECTS

1. The objects of the Group are to promote the use of the Kimberley Karavan, the Kimberley Kruiser and the caravanning and camping lifestyle by:
 - a. providing general advice and information to members on the modification and maintenance of Qualifying Units;
 - b. engaging in and encouraging responsible social activities, gatherings or rallies within the Group or affiliated association(s);
 - c. encouraging safe driving and road courtesy;
 - d. encouraging members to adopt environmentally responsible camping and touring practices as promoted by organisations such as, but not limited to, Leave No Trace, the Campervan and Motorhome Club of Australia and the various organisations which administer forests, reserves and National Parks;
 - e. treating fellow members with dignity, respect and courtesy;
 - f. joining or affiliating with any association having as its objective the betterment of caravanning and camping and the promotion of a responsible caravanning and camping lifestyle;
 - g. striving to improve the conditions available to owners of the Kimberley Karavan, the Kimberley Kruiser and caravan owners in general;
 - h. representing Members of the Group at various industry and governmental levels in order to obtain better conditions for owners of Kimberley Karavans and Kruisers, and caravan owners in general;
 - i. importing, preparing, purchasing, selling, leasing, hiring and otherwise dealing with stock in trade or such activities as determined by the Management Committee, which will promote the standards and activities of the Group;
 - j. ensuring the Group has appropriate and adequate insurance in place for public liability, indemnity of officials, Group activities or other such insurance matters that may arise;
 - k. providing an internet-based forum so that Members can interact online and for the Management Committee to convey news and information to Members and vice versa, and
 - l. Providing support to the community or community groups as determined by the Management Committee from time-to-time, in particular the Royal Flying Doctor Service.

4 POWERS

1. The Group has the powers of an individual.
2. The Group may, for example:
 - a. enter into contracts;
 - b. acquire, hold, deal with and dispose of property;

- c. impose charges for services and facilities it supplies;
- d. do other things necessary or convenient in carrying out its affairs, and
- e. accept and make donations and gifts to and from the Members.

5 CATEGORIES OF MEMBERS

1. There are two categories of membership of the Group. The categories are:
 - a. An Associate Member is a person who is not an owner or co-owner of a Qualifying Unit, but whose partial access to Group activities and privileges is deemed appropriate by the Management Committee. An Associate Member is not permitted to move a motion or vote, hold office or nominate a person to hold office, but may, at the discretion of the Management Committee, take part in Group activities, including access or partial access to the Group's discussion forum and attendance at Group gatherings.
 - b. an Ordinary Member is a person who is an owner or co-owner of a Qualifying Unit and they have paid the required admission fees and subscription as determined from time-to-time and been accepted by the Management Committee.
 - i. A maximum of two co-owners of a Qualifying Unit are eligible to be Ordinary Members.
2. A person or persons who have paid a deposit, but have not yet taken delivery of their Qualifying Unit, may be admitted as an Ordinary Member.
3. The number of Members is unlimited.
4. An Ordinary Member who ceases to be the owner or co-owner of a Qualifying Unit shall continue to be eligible for Ordinary Membership provided that, subject to the provisions in Clause 7, they maintain continuous subscription from the time of disposal of the qualifying unit.
5. Membership rights, privileges and obligations are not transferable to another person, and terminate upon cessation of membership.

6 DELETED

7 MEMBERSHIP FEES

1. Membership and joining fees for Ordinary Members are charged per Qualifying Unit. A Qualifying Unit may bring with it a maximum of two Ordinary Members, but fees are paid only per Qualifying Unit.
2. An initial joining fee and annual membership fee for each membership category shall be determined by the Management Committee until the first Annual General Meeting is held. Thereafter, the fees:
 - a. are the amounts decided by the Members from time-to-time at an Annual General Meeting and set out in the Membership Application Form; and

- b. are payable when, and in the manner determined by the Management Committee.
3. Subject to Management Committee approval, a Member moving from one category to another shall not be liable to any additional fees.
4. A Member's annual membership fee is due for payment each year before the last day of the Group's financial year.
5. A Member who has not paid their annual membership fee by the last day of the Group's financial year is unfinancial. The Member will not be permitted to move a motion, vote, hold office, nominate a person to hold office, take part the activities of the Group or use the Group's on-line forum.
6. A Member who has not paid their annual membership fee by the last day of the month following the end of the Group's financial year shall have their Group membership terminated.
 - a. Payment of membership arrears after the last day of the month following the end of the Group's financial year will, subject to the discretion of the Management Committee, attract the joining fee and membership fee for new members.
7. For new members joining the Group, their initial joining fee and annual membership fee shall be:
 - a. If joining in the first six months of the Group's financial year, the joining fee and the full-year annual membership fee, or
 - b. If joining in the second six months of the Group's financial year, the joining fee and half the annual membership fee, except that
 - i. If joining in the last month of the Group's financial year, the joining fee and the full-year annual membership fee to cover up to the end of the Group's next Financial Year.

8 ADMISSION AND REJECTION OF NEW MEMBERS

1. Application for membership of the Group must be made on the approved form held on the website.
2. The completed membership form shall be delivered (by postal or electronic means) to the secretary, together with the appropriate joining fee and applicable annual membership fee.
3. If satisfied that the application complies with the requirements of the Constitution, the Group secretary may accept the application on behalf of the Management Committee and shall enter the new Member's name in the Register of Members. The secretary will notify the Management Committee of all applications approved for membership.
4. The secretary shall refer to the Management Committee for a final decision on any application that has not been accepted, together with the reasons for non-acceptance of that application. Acceptance or rejection of the application shall be determined by the Management Committee at its next meeting.

5. If the Management Committee rejects an application for membership, the applicant may re-apply once the requirements of this Constitution have been met.
6. The secretary shall notify the applicant as to the outcome of their application. If the applicant is rejected, the secretary shall refund the applicant's joining and applicable annual fee as soon as practicable.

9 WHEN MEMBERSHIP ENDS

1. A Member may resign from the Group by giving written notice of resignation to the secretary.
2. The resignation takes effect at:
 - a. the time the notice is received by the secretary; or
 - b. at a later time if stated in the notice.
3. The Management Committee may terminate a Member's membership if the Member:
 - a. is convicted of an indictable offence, or
 - b. does not comply with any of the provisions of this Constitution, or
 - c. has membership fees in arrears on the last day of the month following the end of the Group's financial year, or
 - d. conducts himself or herself in a way considered to be not in the best interests of the Group.
4. Before the Management Committee terminates a Member's membership, the Management Committee must give the Member a full and fair opportunity to demonstrate why the membership should not be terminated.
5. If, after considering all representations made by the Member, the Management Committee decides to terminate the membership, the secretary of the Management Committee must give the Member a written notice of the decision, within seven days of the decision being made.
6. A Member who resigns or has their membership terminated shall not be entitled to a refund of their joining fee or any part of their annual membership fees on a pro-rata basis.

10 DISCIPLINING MEMBERS

1. A complaint may be made by any Member of the Group that some other Member of the Group:
 - a. has persistently refused or neglected to comply with a provision or provisions of this Constitution, or
 - b. has acted in a manner not in the best interests of the Group.
2. Upon receiving such a complaint, the Management Committee will determine whether the complaint is valid, and if so:
 - a. cause notice of the complaint to be served on the Member concerned;

- b. give the Member at least fourteen days from the date of the Management Committee's decision, within which to make submissions to the Management Committee in connection with the complaint; and
 - c. must take into consideration any submissions made by the Member in connection with the complaint.
- 3. The Management Committee may, by resolution, expel or suspend the membership of the Member from the Group if, after considering the complaint and any submissions made in connection with the complaint, it is satisfied that the facts alleged in the complaint have been substantiated.
- 4. If the Management Committee expels or suspends a Member, the secretary of the Management Committee must within seven days after the action is taken, provide written notice to be given to the Member stating:
 - a. the decision of the Management Committee;
 - b. the reasons given by the Management Committee for having taken the decision; and
 - c. the Member's rights of appeal under Clause 11.
- 5. The expulsion or suspension does not take effect:
 - a. until the expiration of the period within which the Member is entitled to appeal against the decision concerned; or
 - b. if within that period the Member exercises the right of appeal, unless and until the Group confirms the resolution of the Management Committee under Clause 11(5), whichever is later.

10A RESOLUTION OF INTERNAL DISPUTES

- 1. Disputes between members (in their capacity as members) of the Group, and disputes between members and the Group, are to be referred to a community justice centre for mediation in accordance with the Community Justice Centres Act 1983
- 2. At least seven days before a mediation session is to commence, the parties are to exchange statements of the issues that are in dispute between them and supply copies to the mediator.

11 RIGHT OF APPEAL FOR A DISCIPLINED MEMBER

- 1. When a Member is disciplined, the person affected has the right of appeal in accordance with this clause.
- 2. The Member may appeal to the Group in a General Meeting against a resolution of the Management Committee under clause 10(3) by providing the secretary a notice to that effect. Notice of appeal must be lodged with the secretary within twenty-one days after notice of the resolution has been served on the Member.
- 3. The notice of appeal must be accompanied by a statement, illustrating the basis on which the Member intends to appeal.

4. Upon receipt of appeal under Clause 11(1), the secretary must notify the Management Committee as soon as practicable and the Management Committee shall convene a General Meeting of the Group.
5. At a General Meeting of the Group convened under Clause 11(4):
 - a. the Management Committee and the Member must be given opportunity to present their respective cases either orally or in writing or both; and
 - b. the Members present must vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the resolution of the Management Committee under Clause 10(3) should be confirmed or revoked.
6. If at the General Meeting of the Group, the Members pass a resolution in favour of the confirmation of the resolution of the Management Committee, the resolution is confirmed.
7. The decision of the General Meeting shall be final, and no further appeals on the same issue will be considered.

12 REGISTER OF MEMBERS

1. The Management Committee must keep a Register of Members of the Group. Administration of the Register of Members shall be a function of the secretary of the Management Committee.
2. The Register of Members must include the following particulars for each Member:
 - a. the full name of the Member;
 - b. details of the Qualifying Unit;
 - c. the postal or residential address of the Member;
 - d. the date of admission as a Member;
 - e. the membership category of each Member;
 - f. the email address of the Member;
 - g. the date of termination or resignation of the Member;
 - h. details about the termination or reinstatement of membership, and
 - i. any other particulars the Management Committee or the Members at a General Meeting decide.
3. The Register must be open for inspection by Members of the Group at all reasonable times.
4. A Member must contact the secretary of the Management Committee to arrange an inspection of the Register of Members.
5. The Management Committee may, on the request of a Member of the Group, withhold information about the Member (other than the members full name) from the Register of Members available for inspection. The Management Committee will withhold such details only if it has reasonable grounds for believing the disclosure of such information would infringe the Member's privacy or cause harm to the Member.

13 PROHIBITIONS ON USE OF INFORMATION ON REGISTER OF MEMBERS

1. A Member of the Group must not:
 - a. use information obtained from the Register of Members to contact, or send material to another Member of the Group for the purpose of advertising for political, religious, charitable or commercial purposes;
 - b. disclose information obtained from the Register of Members to someone else, knowing that the information is likely to be used to contact, or send material to another Member of the Group for the purpose of advertising for political, religious, charitable or commercial purposes; and
2. Clause 13(1) does not apply if the use or disclosure of the information is approved by the Group.

14 RIGHTS OF MEMBERS

1. Subject to Clause 5, a Member shall be entitled to:
 - a. attend and participate in all activities of the Group and its branches
 - b. attend, speak at, move motions and vote at all General Meetings;
 - c. vote on any motion put to Members for resolution by the Management Committee;
 - d. stand for election, hold positions (if elected) or nominate a Member for election;
 - e. receive a copy of any publication the Group may publish;
 - f. have access to the Members' section of the Group website;
 - g. a membership name tag or card as determined by the Management Committee together with a membership number;
 - h. any other services or products provided by the Group to its Members; and
 - i. a Member has the right to appeal disciplinary action invoked on the Member by the Management Committee in accordance with Clause 11.

15 MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

1. The Management Committee, subject to the Act, Regulations, the Constitution, and to any resolution passed by the Members at a properly constituted meeting:
 - a. shall control and manage the Group's affairs; and
 - b. has power to perform all such acts and do all such things as appear to the Management Committee to be necessary for the proper management of the Group's affairs.

16 COMPOSITION AND MEMBERSHIP OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

1. Only Members eligible to vote and who own a Qualifying Unit shall be eligible to become members of the Management Committee.
2. The Management Committee shall consist of the following office bearers and ordinary members:
 - a. President;
 - b. Vice President;
 - c. Secretary;
 - d. Treasurer, and
 - e. A number of ordinary members provided that the number of persons on the Management Committee does not exceed seven.
3. Each Member of the Management Committee shall be elected pursuant to Clause 17 or appointed in accordance with Clause 20(1).
4. Subject to Clause 16(2), (3) and (4), the Management Committee may act notwithstanding any vacancy on the committee.
5. After a recommendation is made by the Management Committee and subject to the agreement of the Members present at any General Meeting, positions on the Management Committee may be combined as follows:
 - a. If it is required that a member of the Management Committee must hold the position of Public Officer the position of Public Officer may be combined with any other position, provided that the combined office-holder shall always be a resident of New South Wales, in accordance with the Act;
 - b. The positions of Secretary and Treasurer may be combined. If the positions of Secretary and Treasurer are combined, then, should it be required, the only other position that may be added to the combined Secretary-Treasurer position is that of Public Officer, provided that the combined office-holder shall always be a resident of New South Wales, in accordance with the Act.

17 ELECTION OF MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE MEMBERS

1. Members elected to the Management Committee shall hold office, subject to this Constitution, until immediately before the election of committee members at the next Annual General Meeting, except where:
 - a. the Member resigns from their position on the Management Committee; or
 - b. the Member resigns from the Group; or
 - c. the Member has their appointment terminated; or
 - d. the Member's membership of the Group is terminated.
2. Only Members who are eligible to vote pursuant to this Constitution may be nominated for election as members of the Management Committee.

3. A Member is not eligible to be elected as a member of the Management Committee if :

4. Nominations of candidates for election as office-bearers and ordinary committee members on the Management Committee shall be:
 - a. made in writing and signed by two eligible voting Members and the candidate; and
 - b. delivered to the secretary of the Management Committee no later than thirty days prior to the next Annual General Meeting.
5. Members wishing to nominate candidates for election, but who will be absent from the Annual General Meeting, may nominate candidates in accordance with this section.
6. If insufficient nominations are received to fill any Management Committee vacancy, further nominations shall be requested , and:
 - a. if insufficient nominations are received to fill any vacancy, that position shall be deemed vacant; and
 - b. if the position remains vacant at the end of an Annual General Meeting, the Management Committee may appoint a Member to fill the position.
7. A ballot shall be conducted for all positions for which more than one nomination has been received.
8. The ballot shall be conducted in such a manner as the Management Committee directs.
9. A Member is not eligible to be elected to more than one Management Committee position except when positions are combined in accordance with Clause 16 (5).
10. Management Committee members are eligible for re-election.
 - a. Any Management Committee member who wishes to continue in their position after the AGM must notify the secretary in writing of his or her intention to do so at least eight weeks prior to the date of the AGM. In the absence of such notification nominations will be sought for a replacement.

18 ABSENTEE VOTING

1. A Member seeking to vote in the election of Members of the Management Committee, but who is absent from the General Meeting, may cast an absentee vote by advising the secretary of the Management Committee in writing or by email of the name(s) of the Member(s) (including the relevant position(s)) the Member is seeking to vote for. The secretary of the Management Committee must receive the vote(s) before the Annual General Meeting commences.

19 RESIGNATION OF A MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE MEMBER

1. A Management Committee member may resign from the Management Committee by sending by post and/or email to the Secretary, giving not less than two weeks notice, a written notice of resignation. Upon expiration of the notice period, or a lesser period if agreed between the Management Committee member and the Management Committee, the Management Committee member will cease to be a Management Committee member.
2. A resignation from the Management Committee may be withdrawn if the member sends a written notice of withdrawal by post and/or email, to the Secretary before the expiration of the notice period.

20 VACANCY ON MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

1. In the event of a vacancy on the Management Committee, the Management Committee may appoint a Member to fill the vacancy. The Member so appointed shall hold such position until the next Annual General Meeting, and is eligible for re-election.
2. For the purposes of this Constitution, a vacancy on the Management Committee will occur if the Management Committee member:
 - a. dies;
 - b. ceases to be a Member;
 - c. resigns from their position in accordance with Clause 17(1) or 19(1);
 - d. is removed from the Management Committee pursuant Clause 17(1) or 22(2);

4. Meetings of the Management Committee additional to those stipulated at Clause 23 (1) may be convened by the President or by any two committee members on written request to the Secretary.
5. Oral or written notice of a meeting of the Management Committee shall be given by the Secretary to each member of the Management Committee at least forty-eight hours (or such other period as may unanimously agreed upon by the Management Committee members) before the time the meeting is to be held.
6. Notice of meeting given under Clause 23(4) shall specify the agenda of the meeting and no other business shall be transacted at the meeting, except the business the Management Committee members present at the meeting unanimously agree to treat as urgent.

7. Any four members of the Management Committee constitute a quorum for the purpose of conducting the business of Management Committee.
8. No business shall be undertaken by the Management Committee unless a quorum is present.
 - (a) If, at a meeting where Management Committee members are physically present, a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting then the meeting stands adjourned to another time and place determined by the Management Committee.
 - (b) If, at an on-line meeting, the number of participants does not constitute a quorum within four days of the meeting commencing the meeting stands adjourned to another time determined by the Management Committee.
9. If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is still not present within half an hour of the meeting commencing, the meeting shall be dissolved.
10. At a meeting of the Management Committee, if the President is absent, the Vice-President or other Management Committee member shall preside, as nominated by the Management Committee members.

24 VOTING WITHIN THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

1. The person chairing the Management Committee meeting may request an issue to be voted upon by the members of the Management Committee.
2. The Chairman may request that the issue and response by the Management Committee members be submitted by letter, telephone, video, facsimile reproduction, other electronic means or in person. The Secretary will ensure decisions voted upon are recorded in the minutes of the next meeting of the Management Committee.
3. Questions arising at a meeting of the Management Committee, or any committee appointed by the Management Committee, shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members of the Management Committee or the committee members present at that meeting.
4. Each member present at a meeting of the Management Committee or any committee appointed by the Management Committee (including the person presiding at the meeting) is entitled to one vote. In the event of a tied vote, the person presiding may exercise a second or casting vote, as agreed with the other Management Committee members.
5. Subject to Clause 23(7), the Management Committee may act notwithstanding any vacancy on the Management Committee.
6. Any decision made by the Management Committee, or by a committee appointed by the Management Committee, is valid and effective notwithstanding any defect that may afterwards be discovered.
